

Why Choose Cord Operated Drapery Tracks?

With cord operation all draperies- even heavy, awkward or difficult to reach - can be comfortably and easily handled. Cord operation prevents soiling of draperies by frequent handling. Suitable for domestic and contract applications, our robust systems are maintenance free. The simple combination of high grade plastic with precision engineered aluminum results in the most efficient drapery tracks available. Made to measure. Meant to be bent by design - for bay windows and other curved applications, Silent Gliss corded tracks are unbeatable - they really work!

Trusted Worldwide  Service  3 Year Guarantee

The Silent Gliss Advantage

Silent Gliss cord operated tracks are purpose designed for maximum efficiency, especially when bent, and ensure smooth operation for a lifetime.

The design is paramount: cords run in separate enclosed channels so that they cannot fall out or snag - especially important on bends.

Normal or roller gliders can be selected depending on the job to be done.

The Range

We offer the widest range available worldwide. Select from very discreet profiles up to highly efficient stage tracks capable of runs over 98 feet and carrying draperies over 110lbs in weight.

No compromise - choose exactly which one you need. Almost all can be custom-bent.

Swiss engineered

Drapery stacking can be to one side or in multiples - left or right, as a pair or multiple pairs or, with certain tracks, asymmetrical - one curtain being wider than the other. Choose between wall and ceiling fixing on most tracks.

Accessories

A comprehensive range of brackets is available to cope with almost all situations.

With heavy and very heavy curtains, smooth operation is guaranteed: gliders or roller gliders can be supplied dependent on curtain weight.

Special quick-clip gliders are available on certain systems - easily added or taken off at any time.

Overlap arms ensure total closure and privacy.

Fabrics

The beauty of curtain tracks is that you can choose from virtually any soft furnishing fabric available worldwide.

Silent Gliss also offer beautiful fabric ranges for the home which we can make up for you. The Home Collection offers a selective range of luxurious warm fabrics for domestic situations.

Also available is our Project Collection which offers a variety of fabrics from transparent to dim-out.
